Commissioner Support

Commissioner Service

Commissioners are the heart and soul of the BSA's volunteer movement and have been involved in Scouting since its very beginning in 1910. They were the first commissioned volunteers, and later became our professional Scouters. That is why both commissioners and professionals still wear the wreath of service position patch on their field uniforms, even today. This strong bond continues as district executive/district commissioner and Scout executive/council commissioner serve together as members of their district Key 3 and council Key 3.

Role of the Commissioner in Unit Service

The most important role of the commissioner is to provide unit service to Cub Scout packs, Boy Scout troops, Venturing crews, and Sea Scout ships by:

- Serving as a consultant in unit and youth recruitment and retention
- Serving as a program specialist
- Serving as a resource person
- Serving as a liaison to the district and council
- Assisting units in new mandatory training (basic and online)
- Working with chartered organization representatives

Role of the Commissioner in Membership

- Support units to achieve the Journey of Excellence Performance Recognition.
- Work closely with district executives to help organize all new units.
- Support spring and fall unit membership recruitment programs.
- Promote the full Scouting family with chartered organizations (pack, troop, crew, and ship).

Role of the Professional in Membership

- Work closely with DC/ADCs in the recruitment of unit commissioners to serve all units.
- Monitor progress in the Journey of Excellence Performance Recognition program.
- Help recruit new-unit organizers (volunteers) on the district membership committee.
- Work closely with commissioners to help organize and serve all new units.

Role of the Commissioner in Unit Retention

- Provide needed support for proper unit rechartering (Internet rechartering as well).
- Make regular monthly unit visits.
- Input unit visit reports in Unit Visit Tracking System 2.0.
- Assign experienced commissioners to all new units (minimum service two to three years).

The Role of the Council Commissioner in Unit Retention

- The council commissioner, vice president of operations/vice president of membership, director of field service, and Scout executive meet together to discuss the new-unit organization plan to be introduced at the annual membership growth conference.
